

In Touch March Special

March 13, 2022

Special Edition

Georgi Proulx & Martha Huyler, Editors

An All-round Spectacular Afternoon from Setting to Artiste

If you were unable to attend our March 10 in person meeting at the Utsalady Ladies Aid Building, you truly missed an outstanding experience. Georgi Proulx shares, "I couldn't wait for the April newsletter to share my complete enjoyment of the entire afternoon and share a few pictures too."

The Utsalady Ladies Aid Building (THE perfect historical location), add the refreshments of tea sandwiches (thank you India Nishi), cookies (thank you to many), and vintage tea cups (thank you Nancy Voelckers), all guests were in the right mindset to hear Debbie Dimitre introduce to us the story of suffragist, Alice Stokes Paul, especially those ladies who came in the 1920s attire.

Below are a few of the guests dressed the part to enjoy this wonderful afternoon.

Debbie Dimitre

Kathy Cunningham
Guest: Sole Somers

Marianne McGarry-
Bloom

Mary Ann Schradi

Joyce Leak

Mary Pilkington

Gay Campbell

Judy Prince

Nancy Voelckers & Her Tea Cups

Thank you Kathy Cunningham, Martha Huyler, and India Nishi for the photos.

If you haven't purchased your ticket(s) for Purses with Purpose 2022, do it NOW! We've nearly sold out...full tables are nearly gone. You don't want to miss this fun, worthwhile event on April 30th at 11:00 a.m.

We are also getting fabulous support from our local businesses with the tiered sponsorships. Take a look at the event website to see which ones have contributed to our Scholarship Fund.

<https://aauwsc.ejoinme.org/pwp2022>

If you want to participate by volunteering, several workers are needed to help process sold purses and call out the Live Auction winners. Contact Georgi Proulx if you would like to help. Family guest volunteers are welcome too.

All hands on deck April 29th 4:00 p.m. at Camano Center to set up. See you there!